2 Shot As Officers Curb Due Federal

Bands of young Negroes, hurling gasoline bombs, bricks and bottles at policemen, surged through Jersey City streets again Monday night in a riot that left two Negroes shot and 16 other persons injured.

Police arrested seven Negroes on disorderly persons charges, bringing to 20 the number of arrests since the fighting broke out Sunday night.

Early today, the hit-and-run retreated from the streets, but more than 100 policemen still patrolled a wide area of the predominantly Negro section in the southern part

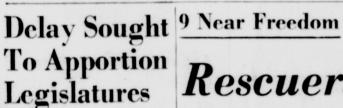

Windows in a score of stores were smashed and some businesses looted in the latest out-

At a michight press conference more than three hours after the riot began, Mayor Thomas J. Whelan said he believed the violence had "passed its peak.'

But he reiterated his warning: "We will use all the force and power at our disposal to see that law and order is maintained."

He said he was prepared to sit down with civil rights leaders "anytime, anywhere" but the first problem was maintaining

Whelan said the situation in Jersey City, across the Hudson River from New York City, was one of "hooliganism versus law and order." The city has 275,000 (Turn to RIOTS, Page 3)

Congress approved Monday, and President Johnson is expected to sign quickly, a $207 million pay raise for the mili-

And Senate and House conferees reached agreement on a $556 million increase for the 1.7 million classified civil service and postal workers, and top government officials, Congress members and federal judges.

The House plans to act today on the civil pay bill, which carries annual raises of $7,500 for congressmen and $10,000 for Cabinet officials. The Senate was expected to act later in the day or Wednesday.

The increases for the armed forces, to take effect the first of next month, will be their second in a year as part of the new policy of reviewing servicemen's pay scales every year.

The House Armed Services Committee told the House it had omitted boosts for draftees and newly enlisted men because they are in training status and because they will receive three or four increases in their first 11 months of service due to promo-

The pay bill agreed on by Senate and House conferees would be retroactive to the first pay period after July 1 for all but the members of Congress and high-level congressional employes. They must wait until next January for their raises.

The President has strongly backed this measure, contending it is essential to retain key personnel in government.

It Happened To France

A possibility looms that North Viet Nam may have seized the initiative in deciding whether to enlarge the war in Viet Nam.

It may already have decided what the United States is still being diffident about deciding - to have a showdown on control of Southeastern Asia. Instead of waiting to see if the United States is "going north," it may have decided to "go

The possibility is worth thinking about. It would take the power of decision out of the hands of the United States and move it bodily into the hands of the Chinese People's Republic, which is underwriting North Viet Nam's efforts to make South Viet Nam despair of enjoying a triumph through its alliance with the United States

The analogy with the situation in Cuba is striking.

While the United States remained undecided whether to go all-out against the Castro regime, the Soviet Union reached a decision to go all-out against the United

In the confrontation that followed, the Soviet Union ostensibly backed down. But the fact then and the fact now is that the United States lost the initiative to the Communist side. While it was deciding what to do, the Communist side stole a march on it.

There is firm precedent for this tactic in Viet Nam. This is the way French influence was undermined and ultimately destroyed in Indo China.

While France was wondering how far and how fast to "escalate" its no-win war against Chinese Communists, Peking stole a march and "escalated" France into defeat at Dienbienphu in 1954.

The Idea Still Works

Last April 1, reduced economy excursion fares went into effect for members of the International Air Transport Asso-

Since then, passenger traffic has increased 40.5 per cent, according to the association. This was the sharpest passenger increase since the last time economy excursion fares were reduced.

The association also reports record book-Ings on trans-Atlantic planes for the remainder of the summer, with better balance on to-and-fro trips. This is of the utmost importance to the airlines, because they had been losing money on partly filled planes.

It costs as much to fly an overseas plane half full as to fly it with every seat occupied. As in all other forms of public transportation, the way to make a profit is to operate at maximum capacity. Hence, reduction of fares for excursion groups. Hence, reduction of fares for firstclass passengers on some domestic air-

It is better to have 1,000 customers at $100 apiece than 500 customers at $150 apiece. The idea of maximum volume at minimum prices still works.

This was the idea that furnished the underpinning for a high standard of living in the United States - mass consumption, stimulated by low prices made possible by mass production.

It's useful to remember this from time to time in an era when the prevailing tendency is in the other direction - to jack up prices continuously and never to widen the market by shaving them down.

Battle Without A Blow

According to weekend battle dispatches from Put-in-Bay, invading forces were pinned down without a struggle and surrendered peaceably last Saturday night.

This was a surprise to tacticians of both camps in what had been looked forward to as one of the fiercest battles since Newport, Daytona Beach, Harlem and Rochester.

The last time Put-in-Bay was invaded, a year ago, thousands of "students" flocked into the community to attend the Interlakes Yachting Association regatta and erupted in an early-Sunday-morning riot that threatened to break up the town. It was determined that there should be no repetition of the fiasco. Put-in-Bay didn't want to share the grief of Newport and Daytona Beach with riotous

The would-be "student" rioters took one look and decided to call it a night.

Odd Facts

Any auditorium has good acoustics for speech and music if it is properly shaped to reflect useful sound to listeners - without disturbing echoes. A "useful" reflection is one that arrives at the listener within 1-20 of a second after the sound from the speaker or musical instrument. If the reflection is delayed longer, it becomes a disturbing echo.

The words of "America", one of the national hymns of the United States, were written by the Rev. Samuel Francis Smith in 1832, and they were first used at a children's Fourth of July picnic in Boston. The music to "America" is, of course, the same as that of the British national anthem, "God Save the Queen".

One is surprised to see that the bearded monarch is but 4foot 2. But his regal bearing gives him giant stature, for which the democratic world can be thankful. A huge chunk of Africa might well have been Communist today were it not for his majesty. He has bolstered such anti-Communists as President Julius Nyerere of the United Republic of Tanganyika and President Sekou Zanzibar, Toure of Guinea, the leaders of Kenya - and today is struggling to keep Zanzibar from Sino-Soviet-Cuban hands.

IN EFFECT, it's this diminutive monarch against the Communist gargantuan forces which seek to use Zanzibar as a rocket base from which to dominate not only East Africa but the Red Sea, the Suez Canal and the Arabian oil fields which fuel most of the world.

If the emperor succeeds, it will be the first time in history that Sino-Soviet forces have actually been compelled to withdraw from any land they've seized. And, regardless of what the rest of the world is told, the Communists now have the Zanzibar - Pemba Islands, though they supposedly have been merged with the Republic of Tanganyika.

Unfortunately most folks back home are unaware of the strategic importance of Tanganyika and identify it only as the area in which Humphrey Bogart and Katherine Hepburn finally survived in "The African Queen.

Evidence of Communist control of Zanzibar can be seen all over the islands. The Zanzibari People's Liberation Army

The Liberation Army has been equipped with Soviet mortars, artillery, automatic weapons, heavy machine guns and even utterly unnecessary antiaircraft and anti-tank guns soon to be replaced by sophisticated ground - to - air rockets This is the Cuban pattern.

HUGE STOCKS of automatic guns and ammunition are cached in the cellar of the Soviet embassy, now heavily fortified by a high wall and barbed Soviet experts actually run the islands' Port and Marine Depts. Over in Pemba they operate the harbor and direct economic development. The Soviet - controlled East German "embassy" has brought in its people to run the ministries of finance, information, education and health. It also supplies teachers for the reorganized school system.

The former labor movement has been revamped in the image of the Cuban confederation and now is called the Federation of Revolutionary Trade Unions of Zanzibar (FRTU). It no longer functions as a real labor movement. Its officials are appointed by the Revolutionary though it was supposed to have been dissolved. Any labor official can fire a worker, lower his wage or replace him.

The FRTU leaders are two disciplined, specially - trained Communists: President Mohamed Mfaume and Secretary General Khamis Ameir. They have been guided by a representative of the East German Trade Union Federation, Alfred Wilke, who not only is a power in the Soviet Zone of Germany but also is in charge of instruction and education of all labor

THE PEKING Chinese Communists are attempting to compete with the Soviets by pouring in millions of dollars and technicians. On May 24 such technicians arrived on freighters from Shanghai. He is on intimate terms with Zanzibar government and officially the first vice president of the United Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar (URTZ). Sheik Karume allegedly is independent minded and the West -as well as Emperor Haile Selassie - hopes he can be swung away from the Communists.

When URTZ President Nyerere's government in Dar es Salaam ruled that the Communist ambassies on Zanzibar must reduce their status to consulates by July 1, Karume defied the order and is dealing with the Cuban, Chinese, Soviet and East German representatives on an ambassadorial basis.

KARUME MADE a point of defying the decree from the central government. On June 14, at a shipboard luncheon given by the captain of the East German vessel, Ernst Schmeller, Karume said, "Although some people may not like it, we nevertheless consider it a great honor to maintain diplomatic relations with the German Democratic Republic.'

When Communist Ambassador Meng Ying presented his credentials, Karume said, "We look to the Chinese (Peking) government and people as our close brothers, not ordinary friends.

However, the emperor of Ethiopia has not given up on Karume. When Haile Selassie visited East African nations to the south of here last month, he sent word he would fly over to Zanzibar. The Communists warned him not to come. Karume, pressured, advised he would boycott the visit and the emperor would lose face.

Haile Selassie disdained these warnings. He went in with President Julius Nyerere. His Majesty was greeted in Zanzibar by parades. At the last minute Karume scrambled over to greet the monarch. The Communists lost face - and prestige. The world owes much to this em-

Mansfield On Ticket?

By David Lawrence

Johnson Takes A Political Gamble

President Johnson is perhaps one of the most adroit politicians ever to sit in the White House but he took quite a gamble last Thursday in the way he ruled out Attorney General Kennedy as his running mate for the forthcoming campaign.

The President

has had Sen. David Lawrence Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota in mind right along for the vice presidential nomination, but he may wind up selecting Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, after all, because of the way the backfire started by supporters of Bobby Kennedy may develop in relation to the religious issue. In the first place, it isn't good political strategy normally for man who is sure of the presidential nomination to announce three weeks before a national convention just who he will not recommend for the vice presidential nomination. There usually is given an appearance, at least, of letting the delegates do their own choosing at the convention itself.

A peculiar set of circumstances, however, had arisen. Those politicians who wished to see Attorney General Kennedy nominated for the vice presidency were getting very active in organizing a movement for him. There were reports that plans were being made to have a big emotional demonstration at the Democratic convention at Atlantic City-participated in perhaps by Mrs. John F. Kennedy-and that this would encourage a drive to name the brother of the late president.

Presumably it was deemed best, therefore, for the administration managers to head off all such strateagems by deferring the memorial demonstration until after the balloting and for the President to announce now that he doesn't favor the attorney general.

To make a statement singling him out might have seemed politically harmful.

FOR THIS REASON, Mr. Johnson evidently decided it was better to eliminate at one fell swoop all the members of his Cabinet along with Messrs. Sargent Shriver and Adlai Stevenson, who sit in at Cabinet issue involved-namely, that the Republicans have already nominated a Roman Catholic for vice president. If the President, of course, had chosen the attorney general-who is a Roman Catholic-this factor in the campaign would have been immediately equalized or removed.

While Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota, another Catholic. has been mentioned for the vice presidential nomination, it's hard to see how the President could gracefully pass over Sen. Humphrey and pick his state's junior senator just because of the religious question.

So it looks as if Mr. Johnson has purposely planned to use the next three weeks to weigh carefully the situation that develops. If the "backlash" from the Kennedy supporters appears sizeable, Mr. Johnson will forego selection of Sen. Humphrey. The man then named would be Sen. Mansfield, majority leader of the Senate, who happens to be a Roman Catholic.

OFFICIAL SOURCES say that, in a recent conversation with the President, Mr. Mansfield voluntarily took himself out of the race. Of course, if Mr. Johnson gives the nod, the Montana senator easily could be "drafted" by the convention. It will be recalled that Mr

Johnson himself was majority leader of the Senate when nominated for vice president in 1960. There is much merit in the idea of picking for either place on the ticket a man who has been working intimately with both parties in Congress and knows the score of all the problems in Domestic and foreign relations during the last three years.

Mr. Mansfield is a tactful man and an intelligent one, who has won the respect of senators from all states. He fits the specifications for the vice presidential nomination which Mr. Johnson himself last Thursday prescribed as follows:

"I think he should be a man that is well received in all the states of the Union among all of our people. I would like to see a man that is experienced in foreign relations and domestic affairs. I would like for him to be a man of the people who felt a compassionate concern for their welfare and who enjoyed public service and was dedicated to it.

The Congressional Directory says that Mr. Mansfield is 61 years old, enlisted in the Navy at the age of 14 during World War I, and subsequently enlisted in the Army and the Marine Corps.

HE WORKED as a miner and mining engineer for eight years, then attended the Montana School of Mines and Montana State University. From the latter, he received a BA degree and later an MA degree, and then served as professor of This maneuver, however, Latin American and Far Easthasn't disposed of one political ern History at the university for 10 years.

He was elected for five terms in the House of Representatives and now is in his second term in the Senate.

It does seem that Sen. Mansfield-the son of Irish immigrants, who has worked his way to the top-is the kind of man who not only is dedicated to public service but has the background which assures a "compassionate concern' for the welfare of the American people.

Johnson, The Candidate

By Douglas Cornell

don B. Johnson dropped the "if" in talking of his own presidential nomination when he dropped Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and some others as vice presidential possibilities.

It can be accepted now, in case there was any doubt, that come September President Johnson probably will be out pounding the campaign trail for President Johnson all around the country, by plane, train, helicopter and motorcade.

Johnson may not acknowledge this, or even know it for sure vet. Some of his lieutenants think he may want to turn over the bulk of the campaigning to his running mate. They suggest the President might touch base in most of the big cities and the states with big votes, but no political sorties of a couple or three days.

The spirit of the old political firehorse may prevail, however, once the campaign gong starts clanging.

By tradition, Democrats start the gong going at an appearance of their presidential nominee at a Labor Day rally in Detroit's Cadillac Square. When Johnson was in Detroit in June he said that "if events work out, I'll be there."

The President hasn't ridden a train since he became president. This may change. California Democrats reportedly want Johnson out there at least twice before election day. It's a big, long state, with a big electoral vote, and one of the classic campaign routes is by special train down the valleys.

In 1960, Johnson got in some effective licks from the back porch of a train tooting through the South. The son of the Con-

WASHINGTON (AP) - Lyn- federacy may want to go back again, with his folksy stories about the kinfolk plus another appeal "not as a Southerner to Southerners but as an American to Americans" - as he put it four years ago.

The Democrats are going to hit hard in the Midwest. Some areas there, such as "Little Egypt," in Southern Illinois, can be worked easily by train and car.

In any event:

Johnson may campaign in half the states or more. He says, "I expect to appear in various parts of the country.' It looks as if he won't debate Republican nominee Barry Goldwater on television. Parts of the South look shaky, but Johnson isn't writing off any

He counts on prosperity as the top vote getting issue, an issue that may help offset some of a "white backlash" against racial demonstrations.

He says he will talk about all the issues, "foreign policy is an appropriate subject.

Most campaigns are rough campaigns," Johnson says. This one probably will be no excep-

A large group attended the screening of the 1964 quartet competition held at Toronto, Canada, in honor of the silver anniversary of barbershop singing. Appearing in the movie were The Colonials, local group; the Town and Country Four of Pittsburgh, international champions, and the Imposters, who will appear on the local 1965 parade. Also included were shots of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Manning. He is the unit delegate.

Don Schussler presided for business in the absence of Sam Wolfe, president and directed the singing for Glenn Woods, director.

Eugene Beal of Chester was a guest. Next Monday, the group will attend the regular session of the Area 11 Chorus at Salem. Anyone interested in going may call Wolfe.

Bailey Drives In Winning Run As Bucs Nip Giants

Pittsburgh Moves Into Third Spot

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Bailey, hightly touted youngster who dragged through a poor rookie season under the pressure of a whopping bonus, is beginning to pay dividends.

A $150,000 bonus baby who batted a dismal .228 last season, Bailey continued his heavy hitting Monday night by slamming a key triple in the eighth inning and a game-winning single in the ninth that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The two hits lifted Bailey's average to .304 and boosted the Pirates into third place in the tight National League pennant struggle, 41/2 games behind the front-running Philadelphia Phillies and 21/2 lengths behind the Giants.

A vital offensive weapon in the Pirates' bid to duplicate their 1960 pennant, Bailey has always spoken freely about the pressure applied by the gigantic bonus and his meager accomplishments as a rookie last year when the Pirates nosedived to eighth place.

Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, tagged with a "bad boy" label by the Australian tennis brass, now are back in favor; solidly, thoroughly and completely back in the good graces.

Winning does it. The duo swept Mexico's best 4-1 in Davis Cup American Zone semifinals Monday and have only two more steps to take before meeting the United States in the Challenge Round, climax to the Aussies' drive to recapture the cup they had considered private property until the U.S. upset last year. Emerson and Stolle, among the player suspended by Australia after they had bolted a tourney there to play abroad, won the final singles matches in Mexico City in straight set Monday, beating Antonio Palafox and Rafael Osuna.

Stole, who lost to Osuna in a singles match Saturday, clinched the meet for Australia when he scored a surprisingly easy 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 triumph over Mexican national champion Pa-

That made the best of five series 3-1 and Emerson's match with Osuna was academic. Emerson won 6-3, 6-4, 11-9.

The victory puts the Australians into the American Zone finals against Chile, considered a much weaker opponent than Mexico. The match is scheduled in Minneapolis Aug. 14-16.

The local All-Stars, which captured the Regional title Sunday by defeating Pittsburgh, plan to leave for Charlotte Monday morning.

Smith explained the Colt League must raise an additional $600 to meet expenses for the trip to the Southern city.

The League is considering a tag day Saturday and is accepting donations.

The team will make the trip by chartered bus or by station wagons donated locally.

The National Colt League will give East Liverpool about $250 for the trip and the players will be quartered by the Charlotte chapter.

By ARA PARSEGHIAN

(For The Associated Press) Everyone must realize that many things happen in athletics. And to a coach it is difficult to single out one of them and tag it as "my greatest thrill."

However, the one big thing that comes to my mind is the 1958 Ohio State - Northwestern football game. It probably was the turning point in Northwestern football

The final score was Northwestern 21, Ohio State 0.

We had tumbled the mighty Buckeyes. We had done it convincingly, and more important, ar we had shut them out. If you recall, Woody Hayes was quite adamant about the use of the forward pass, and had declared that he would never lose to a passing team.

It so happens that we threw two touchdown passes that after 3noon. This may sound like I'm rubbing it in on Woody, but I'm really not. I'm just trying to excuse to drop from the Big fancy of our rebuilding program point out the reasons why I and had to use many sopho- remember it so well.

What can I do about mil-These rays are invisible, and lie just beyond the violet end of dew that has made an appearthe visible spectrum. They are part of the group called 'ultra violet rays." But even if you can't see them, your ance on some bamboo shades? skin feels these ultra violet rays most definitely. Fifteen A. Rub the bamboo shade with minutes of exposing an untanned skin to bright sunlight will cause tan to start forming. Twenty minutes may cause sun-

> Look at the diagram. In the outermost of the skin's two layers, the epidermis, are networks of special cells called 'melanocytes." These can produce particles of the brownish pigment melanin. When the ultra violet rays pour down, this starts the melanocytes working and the melanin they turn out (right) makes the skin tan. Melanin absorbs the ultra violet rays and so a tan is a protection-up to a point. Stay in the sun too long and a chemical is released which works down into the skin's lower level, and makes the blood vessels swell. Then your skin gets red and uncomfortable. A light sunburn will do little damage, but too much may cause great discomfort and even serious illness.

* * FOR YOU TO DO: The next time you start sunning with a untanned skin, remember these hints: Tan gradually-no more than 15 minutes in the sun at first. Use a suntan lotion. and wear sunglasses.

Humphrey Book Lists Poverty As Challenge

WASHINGTON (AP) - In a book published today with President Johnson's endorsement, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, writes that America faces one of its greatest challenges in lifting 35 million citizens out of poverty.

The book, "War on Poverty," is the first written by the Minnesota senator, considered a leading possibility for the Democratic vice presidential nomi-

Among other proposals Humphrey suggests a domestic invstment bank to make the kind of massive investment needed to rehabilitate the nation's depressed communities.
